URS Table Number	General Notes
4	Decrease in competitive employment from last report is due to a revised, more precise question on the Patient Characteristics Survey. We now ask if the person is in "competitive and integrated" employment, rather than "competitive employment with supports" or "competitive employment without supports." Also, we expect that some loss of employment is due to changing economic conditions."
5	Increase in total number of consumers with Medicaid funding between 2011 and 2012 report is because in previous years, we were not fully accounting for Medicaid Managed Care clients.
6	Since 2008, State-operated Adult Civil Inpatient Psychiatric Centers have been transforming themselves to be more community-oriented. Their goals include reducing the number of long-stay patients, increasing the overall acuity level of inpatient units, enhancing community services to better meet outpatient needs and strengthening involvement in community-based systems of care resulting in a decrease in the average LOS of adults discharged from state hospitals.
16	For supported employment (SE) tracking, OMH has replaced NYISER with NYESS. Due to a steep learning curve for providers, data for SE is incomplete in NYESS. The number of persons receiving SE in PROS programs and funding for Ongoing-Integrated SE programs has remained level.
16	Funding for the OMH Family Based Treatment has been reduced due to underutilization of the program. Due to growth in waiver services and implementation of a single point of entry process for determining level of need, community-based services are more available to support families in need.
17	The Family Psychoeducation estimate includes consumers receiving Consumer Centered Family Consultation, a brief 1-3 session intervention that emphasizes information, support and guidance to family members that is practical for adults with SMI. The Family Psychoeducation training provided by the Family Institute for Education, Practice and Research is in its sixth full year of operation. Though it is reaching more families as the number of trained clinicians has expanded, we can only report data on the families served by clinicians who are participating in the most recent training initiative.
