

Re: Privacy Regulations

Dear Administrator Hyde,

My privacy rights concerning my records of drugs and alcohol is very important that they be private. I am soon to be applying for a job and I fear that I may never have a chance to better myself and those in society otherwise. I have rehabilitated myself in AA treatment and in the relationships of my family. Please have faith in me to do better by protecting my addiction records.

Gratefully yours,

CB

Re: Privacy Regulations

Dear Administrator Hyde,

I hope this letter reaches you in good spirits. I am writing you this letter on the important of the privacy protection for alcohol and drug abuse patient records be maintained. I feel truly that if released that it would make situations such as homeless, jobless and government assistance worst than what they already are. On top of that I feel that this is the persons past history. Meaning everybody I mean everybody including yourself have room for changes. Example if you take a person who has been fighting a drug addiction for a long period of time and has been in and out out treatment facilities many times. Finally they get there life together by the Grace of God and start to prosper and achieve there life long goals. Without the help of any alcohol or drugs and is still working their way up the ladder. Then all of a sudden there past comes back to haunt them, stop them from employment, receiving a roof over top there head and many more obstacles. Now think about this....

To whom it may Concern:

Well I just want to jump right in on the subject of the important of the privacy protections for alcohol and drug abuse patients records be maintained. Everybody make mistake, bad choices, and wrong decision making that can affect our lives temporarily. At least until we can work things out. Some have fallen up under alcoholism and drug addicts but as weird as it they have went through enough already such as job loss, home, family, children and don't forget the most importance is the fight against ones self. Especially if you had to endure incarceration for a while. So why should you take a stumbling block and put it in front of that person when they are trying the best to succeed and overcome the addiction. Thats when they will fill that they won't ever have nothing and could possibility going back to using again. So I feel that records should remain confidential.

Dear Administrator Hyde,

This here is an agreement on how important it is to my family and I that the privacy protection for alcohol and drug abuse patient records be maintained. I also have a criminal record and attending recovery. I don't want my history become a burden.

I realize individuals have discussed good medical care for me will be compromised if all medical professionals cannot see my treatment records, but be available to the ones who must see them. I don't want the risk of losing my family and job or any housing due to someone knowing or finding I had been treated for addiction. I don't want my past to jeopardize my future, because I am doing the right thing.

Administrator Hyde, please protect the privacy of my addiction records and criminal history.

Sincerely,

I am writing to let you know how important it is to me and my family that the privacy protections for alcohol and drug abuse patient records be maintained. I am a person in recovery from addiction and I also have a criminal record. While I take responsibility for the actions I took that resulted in my addiction treatment and criminal record, I do not want my addiction treatment or criminal record to become a lifelong burden.

I understand some have argued that good medical care for me will be compromised if all medical professionals cannot see my addiction treatment records. I think in this day and age with all of the technological advances that software companies can figure out how to keep that information available for those who must see it and unavailable to those who don't need to see it.

The threat to me and people like me is too great to risk doing away with these essential privacy protections. People like me already have enough of the odds stacked against us. I do not want to risk losing my kids, or face the loss of a job

RE: Privacy Rights

Dear Administrator Hyde,

I write you now for Richmonds Regional Jail in hopes that you will help maintain the addiction record of mine and my fellow inmates. We do not deserve to have someone like yourself fighting for us convicts.

However, we get together every night and pray for you and your staff to be able to help us on our journey as free men back in society.

God Bless,

CT

RE: Privacy Rights

Dear Administrator Hyde,

Myself and the boys are terribly concerned about our addiction records privatization. We know you are the man who can define whether they remain confidential or not. We have done nothing to deserve you in the fight for us getting better as a result but we are still asking.

Thank you so much for even considering. We know we are but little value to society but even if we were to become trashmen one day it would be the best for us as free men.

Sincerely,

Re: Privacy Rights

Dear Admin Hyde,

Thank you in advance for considering protecting my addiction records. I do not deserve to be protected like you have helped me, but I thank you otherwise! Everything you do is extremely helpful to the incentive in attaining a job one day. I have re-cooperated mentally as a result of not using drugs for two years and I have gone back to school. Thank you again for all you do!

Sincerely,

RE: Privacy Rights

Dear Administrator Hyde,

Please accept my humble apology in asking you to protect my addiction records. I know I have been an addict all of my life and I do not expect anything you to help in determining my case. I have wronged many people and do not deserve even your time in reading this letter.

However, they say if you don't ask than you'll never know. I am asking you not to consider helping me revoke my life to something of value. I can and will be better.

Sincerely,

CW

Re: Privacy Rights

Dear Administrator Hyde,

I am an inmate at Richmonds Regional Jail. It has been a long time but thankfully I am in recovery at a program tier who uses AA for treatment. I have been clean now two years.

I have recuperated and the judge says I am ready to go back into society.

Please help preserve my addiction records so I can have my best shot that I can out there!

RE: Privacy Regulations

Dear Administrator Hyde,

The purpose of my letter is to inform you how significant it is to me that the privacy protections for alcohol and drug abuse patient records be maintained. I am in recovery from addiction and I also have a criminal record. I take responsibility for my actions resulting in my addicted behavior and criminal record, I do not want my addiction treatment record to become a lifelong burden. I understand some have debated that good medical care for me will be compromised if all medical professionals cannot view my addiction treatment records. I think in this day and age with all of the technological advances that software companies can figure out how to keep that information available for those who must see it and unavailable to those who don't need to view it.

The threat to me and people like me is too great a risk deleting these essential privacy protections. I already have enough of the odds stacked against me. I do not want to risk my future in terms of loss of a job or housing all due to someone finding out that I had been treated for addiction. I don't want me or my family to go without health or life insurance or worse to risk criminal prosecution, arrest or incarceration. I do not want my medical records to be used against me just because I did the right thing and sought to get the assistance for my addiction.

Administrator Hyde, I hope you will do all you can to protect the privacy of my addiction records.

I am a person in recovery from addiction and also have a criminal record. While I take responsibility for my actions I took that resulted in my addiction treatment and criminal record, I do not want my addiction treatment record to become a lifelong burden...

Administrator Hyde, I hope you will do all you can to protect the privacy of my addiction records.

Sincerely,

Pamela Hyde, Administrator

Dear Administrator Hyde,

I am writing to let you know how important it is to me and my family that the privacy protections for alcohol and drug abuse patient records be maintained. I am a person in recovery from addiction and I also have a criminal record. I take responsibility for the actions I took that resulted in my addiction treatment and criminal record. I don't want my addiction record to become a lifelong burden. Some argue that good medical care for me will be compromised if medical professionals cannot see my treatment records.

I do not want my medical records to be used against me just because I sought to get help for my addiction.

Administrator Hyde, I hope you will do all you can to protect the privacy of my addiction records.

Dear Ms. Hyde,

I am writing to let you know I do not think it is right that my information about my addiction treatment become public record.

I understand some have argued that good medical care will be compromised if all medical personal cannot see my treatment record. I do not agree.

I strongly protest this and hope you will take this under advisement, adjustment and consideration.

I am writing to let you know that is very important to me that the privacy protection for alcohol and drug abuse patient records be maintained.

Dear Administrator Hyde,

I am writing to let you know how important it is to me and my family that the privacy protection for alcohol and drug abuse patient records should stay in private. I am a person in recovery from addiction and I also have a criminal record. I take responsibility for my actions that resulted in my addiction treatment and criminal record. But I do not want either of them to become a lifelong burden for me. I would appreciate if you take this into consideration the deck is already stacked against people like us. So please give us a chance to live and have better life by keeping our records private and only to those who must have them. I don't want to lose the little hope I do have. So please help to protect my privacy of my criminal and addiction records.

Sincerely,

EY

RE: Privacy Regulations

Dear Administrator Hyde,

This letter is being written to you in regards of the privacy & protection rules/laws that are set now to help keep any past patient records private. This is an honest world, and people do judge other people for their past. EX. When you go to court a prosecutor uses your past record to make you look/convince a jury that you're capable of a crime. If just anyone has access to my past record they can see that I've taken what was the right steps to better my life & get rid of a bad habit....but then look at me as an addict. Which afterwards like untrustworthy, unreliable, & problematic are associates with. In conclusion... I would prefer for the privacy of my past addiction records to remain protected and confidential. Anything you do that can help this situation would be greatly appreciated.

Thank You for Your Consideration.

Dear Administrator Hyde,

I understand some have argued that good medical care for me will be compromised if all medical professionals cannot see my addiction treatment records. I think in this day and age with all of the technological advances that software companies can figure out how to keep that information available for those who must see it and unavailable to those who don't need to see it.

Administrator Hyde, I hope you will do all you can to protect the privacy of my addiction records.
